Press Release

Templo Calvario CDC Awarded $499,925 by the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) for the Desarrollo Project

Templo Calvario Community Development Corporation's mission is to work with communities and stakeholders to unite, build and transform communities. To make an impact in the present struggles of Santa Ana residents (and its feeder communities), Templo Calvario CDC seeks to serve and partner the organizations that work on their behalf.

Santa Ana, CA, November 4, 2009: Templo Calvario Community Development Corporation (CDC) along with its partner X Factor Consulting, LLC, has been awarded a federal grant to run a Compassion Capital Fund (CCF) Demonstration Program from the Administration for Children and Families (ACF). This new CCF $499,925 award was granted to fund a capacity building program to strengthen grassroots faith and community-based organizations and to expand their capacity to serve most-in-need populations by building, strengthening and developing their organization through the following primary areas: Leadership Development, Organizational Development, Program Development and Community Engagement.

The grant will allow Templo Calvario CDC's Desarrollo Project to provide technical assistance, training, coaching, and modeling supplemented with financial sub-awards to 24 selected grassroots faith and community-based organizations that serve Santa Ana and Orange County.

Those interested in applying for the Templo Calvario CDC's Desarrollo Project Sub-Grants are encouraged to attend the bidder's conference scheduled for January 2010 at Templo Calvario CDC, 2617 W. 5th Street, Santa Ana, CA 92703. A Request for Proposals will be made available at that time and will also be available at Templo Calvario CDC's web site, www.tccdc.org, once it's released.

Interested organizations should frequently check Templo Calvario CDC's web site for updates. For more information and the upcoming bidder's conference please contact Ana Jara at 714.543.3711, extension 125 or email at ana@tccdc.org.
